

1200 FOUNDATION

WORKING FOR THE WORKING POOR

August 27, 2007

Todd Harmon Joins 1200 Foundation Board

The 1200 Foundation, an East Bay non-profit organization, recently named H. Todd Harmon of Piedmont as a trustee.

Harmon is a vice president and senior portfolio manager for UBS Financial Services Inc. in their Walnut Creek office. Before joining UBS, he was with Morgan Stanley for 17 years. In addition to his new role as a trustee for the 1200 Foundation, Harmon's other volunteer activities include managing the portfolio for the Piedmont Educational Foundation Endowment Account. Harmon, a northern California native, graduated from the University of California at Berkeley.

The 1200 Foundation is a non-profit, grant-making organization committed to supporting programs that help low-income individuals and families in Alameda and Contra Costa counties achieve economic self-sufficiency. The foundation awards grants to innovative, successful programs in the following areas:

- job skills training,
- career development support,
- entrepreneurship and small business creation, and
- family support services focused on building economically independent families.

To learn more about the 1200 Foundation, visit the website at <http://1200foundation.org>.

For additional information, contact:

Ann Frizell, President, 1200 Foundation, 510-653-4367